WORSE THAN SLAVERY

The Existence of Native Africans in the Congo Free State.

THE STATEMENT OF A MISSIONARY.

A System of Hobbery and Extertion Fostered by Minor Officials Which Causes Prequent Ontbreaks on the Part of the Lexbox, Nov. 18.—The Associated Pres has received a statem at condraing the reports of the twellife condition of affairin the Congo From State from an American missionary who has just returned to Europe. The missionary in question, the Rev. John D. Musphy is on the staff of the America's Baptist Missionary union He has weeked in the Congo for nine Brars, and returned to Antwern recently by the st amoral, opaldville. Flatust stathen was Equatorable, right in the empty of the Congo Free Stare. Helethelast arrival from there. He says:

"The sear of the government of the Corgo Free State is at Board, which is flory miles from the const and 250 from Stanley Pool which ought to be the real center. It takes four we have communicat charveon these two places, hence it he comes almost impossible for the governor to manage his vasi and unwieldy territory. and con-equently the commissaires, or petty governors of the interior districts. have almost unlimited power. The officers of the state are young and inexperienced. They do not come out as colonists to develop the country, but in order that they may receive quick promotion, the Congodecoration, and above all, to get money. Of course, there are exceptions, but it is only the few who have an interest in the country and the well being of the people. It has been said by sometrader that the king of the Congo Free State is the largest slaveholder in the dominions, and this is true, although the officers, by a play on words, cone al the facts by calling them liberated slaves."I have been told by naval and other officers of the state that a certain sum per head is paid by the government to the commissaries of the districts from which the slaves are received and to the naval officers who bring such slaves into camp. Fifty per cent. of these wretches are in a starving condition.

"A word about the rubber and ivory trading, or rather plundering of the state. The officials have placed 'posts' in all the towns upon the river banks, and in most of the inland towns. Each post is commanded by a black corporal and a company of soldiers belonging to a hostile tribe, armed with European guns, so that the natives are terrorized by their presence. These soldiers are commanded to stop every canoe that passes the river post. The natives try to pass without being noticed. The soldiers seize their canoes and confiscate their contents. If the natives should muster up courage enough to call, then they are forced to sell their ivory or whatever their canoe contains at the soldiers' own price. I have seen these things and have remonstrated with the state for years, but got no satisfaction.

"The rubber question in our district is, however, by far the most pressing. It has reduced the people to a state of desperation. It is collected by force. The soldiers drive the people into the bush, and if they will not go they shoot them, and their left hands are out off and taken to the commissaire as trophies. The soldiers do not care who they shoot down, and they often shoot poor helpless women and harmless children. Their hands-the hands of men, women and children-are placed in rows before the commissaire, who counts them to see that the soldiers have not wasted their cartridges.

"I cannot tell how many wars this ques tion has cause a cut I will tell of one. In Soromore, but, they had a great fight on the Bosir, because the people refused to give rubber, and I am told upon the authority of a state officer that 1.890 people were killed in the fight. The commissaire is paid a cum aission of about one panny a pound when all the ruld or he gots. It is therefore to his interest to get as much as he can, and the plants are being ruined by his hast / proce dings.

"In regard to the misgovernment of the state. The white officers do not know the language of the people that they govern, and trust too much to their native soldiers, who are, as a rule, men belonging to a hostile tribe, whose chief aim in plunder.

"Upon one occasion, in the month of November, 1894, some soldiers ran away from the state steamer. It was said they went to the town of Bompanga. The state sent a message telling the chief of the town to give them up. He answered that he could not, as they were not there and had not been there. The state sent the rame me-senger a second time, saying: Come to me at once or war in the mornma. The messenger returned to his master warrout delivering the message, saying the chief sout levek a defiant answer. In the morning he sent down two ennoes, The old chirt went out to meet them as a friend, but was wounded, his wife killed nefor this eyes, and her head out off in order that they might possess the brass necks lace which she work. Twenty four of his p. opie w wentso killed.

"Azam, the people of Lake Muntumba halrun away on account of the cruelty of the state. Being anxious to get these people back they sent a party of soldiers, in charge of a colored corporal, to treat with them. On the way they met a canor containing seven of them and on some paltry pretext mad: the people land, shot them, eat off their hands and took them to the commissaire. The Muntumba people complained to the missionary at Irebon. He found that one of the seven was a little girl, who, was, not quite dead, He rescued the child and she lives today, the stump of her handless arm being a witness against the horrible practice.'

The Scizure of the Laurada.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18 -- Ex-United States Senator Eppa Hunton and Mr. C. E. Ore by have been retained by the owners of the steam ship Laurada as their attorneys in Washington. The Laurada was seized on Saturday last by the collector of customs at Charleston, S.C., on complaint by the Spanish minister to Secretary Carlisle that she had violated the neutrality laws in carrying General Cespedes, with a force of men and arms and ammunition,

Murderer Windisch Convicted.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Nov. 18.- George Windisch, who stabbed his wife thirtyeven times, was convicted on Saturday of murder in the first degree. He committed the crime at Pittston last March. On the day of the murder the wife refused to sign over some property to the husband, and he stabbed her with a chisel.

A Vanderbilt Saub.

New York, Nov. 18 -Both W. K. Vanderbilt and his divorced wife, of course, were on board the steamer Fulda on Saturday to say good-bye to their daughter and son-in-law, the Duke and Duchess of Marlborough, While Mr. Vanderbilt was talking to the couple his divorced wife approached the trio and, with one of her most diplomatic smiles, said: "Good morning, Mr. Vanderbilt." If her former husband was surprised he did not show it. With all the dignity possible he raised his silk hat, but no smile appeared upon his face, nor did he look again at the woman who had been his wife. Mrs. Vanderbilt after this cold greeting spoke a few words to the duchess and then returned to her own party, and was soon smiling and talking as if the incident related was of no

Soon after this, however, he gave up the editorial chair and for several years was pastor of the First Baptist church at Newton. Following this he was the editorial secretary of the Missionary union.

A Too Forgiving Husband.

BRATTLEBORO, Vr., Nov. 18.—George A. Cushing committed suicide near the home of his faithless wife in Townsend, in this county, on Saturday. The woman refused to allow the body to be brought into the house. Mrs. Cushing became infaruated with-A. A. Ross while living at Montague. Mass., four years ago. Her husband left her on this account. He went to Oakland, Cal., made a home and wrote for his wife to come on. She raised the objection that the place in Montague should first be sold, and he signed the papers. Mrs. Cushing sold the place, bought another at Townsend and went to live there with Ross. Cushing came on from California Friday, and upon learning the state of affairs shot himself through the head. He left a letter saying that he forgave his wife.

Responsible for a Fatal Wreck. WILLIAM-PORT, Pa., Nov. 18. - Two

freight trains collided on the Fall Brook railroad at Jersey Shore Junction. William McQuade, unmarried, of Corning, N. the north bound train, was crushed into the firebox and instantly killed. Brakeman Daniel Kirkendall, of the same train, had a leg broken. Engineer Vallelly and Conductor Maynard Allen, the crew that made the mistake, jumped. The coroner's jury found Vallelly and Allen responsible for the wreck. The shocking feature of the wreck was that Fireman McQuade was forced down into the firebox and was so fearfully burned that it was impossible to recognize his features.

A CONDUCTOR'S BLUNDER

Caused a Terrible Trolley Car Accident at Cleveland.

PLUNGED DOWN A HUNDRED FEET

Into the River Below—Fifteen Dead Bodies Already Recovered and Four Others Who Are Missing Will Probably be Found Under the Car.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 18 .- A trolley car carrying over twenty passengers, besides the motorman and conductor, went through the draw of the Central Viaduct Saturday night, and dropped 101 feet into the river belew. Patrick Looney is the only survivor of those who went down with the car. He is at the hospital in a critical condition. He says that his recol-lection of the a-cid at is not very clear. The first intimation he had that an accident was to occur was when he felt the car falling. Before he knew what had hap-pened he became unconscious and renom bered nothing more until he came to at the hospital.

On the rear platform of the car before it mad-the terrible plungs wers C. A. Ferguson, of Parma, O.; John Seriger, of Dover, O.; Andy Raike and Jake Heller. All jumped and were saved. Heller says the car was going slowly, and that he heard some one cry out "Stop the car, stop the car," He also says there was a woman on the platform, and that she jumped safely away, but immediately cried out that her daughter was in the car.

The Central Viaduct is a huge stilt bridge 3.00) feet long, made of iron. It connects the heights and the prosperous residence section on the South Side with the business center of the city. Directly over the river is a draw bridge of the pivot swinging pattern, and this is 101 feet above the surface of the water. The South Side street railroad passes over the bridge, and on either side of the draw there is a safety switch, which, unless the conductor alights and holds up a handle, will send a car into the gutter instead of allowing it to go on the draw.

All reports seem to agree that the ill fated motor car approached the draw just as a vessel was nearing it, and the bridge attendants had closed the big iron gates and were preparing to swing the draw. As is the rule, the car stopped, and the conductor went forward to release the switch in case the way was elear. An eye witness declares that though the gates were closed and the draw was already in motion the conductor raised the switch handle.

The motorman applied the current and the car shot forward and struck the gates with a crash. There was only a moment's pause, and then the heavy car ground its way through the wreckage and plunged over the brink into the black abyss amid he screams and frantic strucoles of passengers, who at the first intimation of danger rushed for the rear door. The ear struck with a great splash, and then there

All of the dead have been identified, but four persons who were supposed to have been on the ill fated car as it made the awful plunge are still missing, and there seems to be no doubt that their bodies will be taken from the bottom of the river when the heavy iron trucks of the wrecked motor are raised.

One of the bodies found yesterday was that of little Gertle Hoffman, aged 41; years, who was going home-from the store where her father was employed, with her mother and brother. The other body was that of Louis Huletz, a mail carrier, aged 26 years, who lived with his wife at 38 Brevier street. His head was split open from the forelead down to the chin, and there is no doubt that he was killed before the car settled in the water.

The finding of the body of little Gertie Hoffman filled the cup of sorrow for A. W. Hoffman, a grocery salesman. She was the last member of his family. His wife and son Harvey were taken from the river Saturday night. When Hoffman realized what happened to him he became bereft of his reason. Rushing to the river, he plunged in and tried to drown himself. but was rescued by friends, who took him away and tried to comfort him.

The work of rescuing the bodies was begun immediately after the accident, and is still in progress. Thirteen bodies were recovered during Saturday night, and this was increased to fifteen yesterday.

Bridge Captain Charles Brenner said yesterday: "All the regular danger signals were put out and the gates closed, The bridge had swang clear around, and the loat had approached almost under it. when I was dumfounded to see the car approaching. I cred out with all my might: Stop, stop; for God's sake, stop that car! The motorman was endeavoring to stop the car, but it seemed that his efforts were of no use, for the car came steadily on and erashed into the iron gates, which gave way, and in a se oud the car had gone over the precipiee. Just as the car struck the gates the frightened motorman jumped and fell on the bridge. I saw the motorman about ten minutes after the needent. but he disappeared shortly afterwards."

Last night August Rogers, the motorman of the ill fated car, was charged with manslaughter. This action was taken by Chief of Police Hochn, after he had investigated the accident. Rogers gives this account of the accident;

"When my motor reached the switch at the approach of the draw in the viaduct I shut off my current and applied the brake. The car came to a full stop and the conductor ran ahead and throw the switch. He motioned me ahead with a wave of his arm. I put my lever at the first notch, and as I passed the conductor, who always stands at the switch lever until the car has passed, was running at the rate of possibly four miles an hour. I looked back, as lalways do, and saw him got on the rear platform.

"Looking ahead I thought I saw the gates at the draw closed over the track, but as my lights were hurning, and I had current, the thought occurred to me that my eyes must have been at fault. I was just in the act of giving, and possibly gave the lever a slight push forward, when I was startled at seeing the gates in front of me, and I heard some one yell 'jump!' don't know whether I reversed the current or not, for I realized the danger and leaped from the vestibule. As I leaped I thought I would plunge headlong down and into the river, but as the car struck the gate I fell on it and caught the iron frame and "When I was freed from the iron gate I scarcely knew what to do. I was dazed. I finally concluded to run back and tell the police. I did this, and then ran back to the scene of the accident. I hurried down the embankment and began to pull bodies out from the wreck. I worked there for an hour or more. Then I grew sick and went home."

Ordinarily the swinging of the bridge cuts off the electric current and the lights go out, but Rogers declares positively that the lights were burning brightly in his

The list of the killed and missing is as

THE SYRIAN MASSACRE.

Reported Slaughter of Christians Confirmed-Attairs in Constantinople.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 18.-Later advices received here from Alexandrer, northern Syria, confirm the accounts of a massacra of Christians in that town, in the presence of 300 Turkish soldiers, who did not render any assistance in the suppression of the disorders. Armenians and Mussalmans accuse each other of burning the villages and of other outrages which have occurred in northern Syria.

Thirty-six more of the members of the Young Turks party have been drowned off Kalki Island. This will be denied officially. but the report is probably true.

The London Daily News correspondent

here says the Armenian missionaries at Bitlis have wired the English and American representatives asking that the government provide an escort to Van for them and their families. This correspondent makes the astounding announcement that fully 20,000 Armenians have been killed during the recent massacres.

The sultan has been so upset by the recent turn which affairs have taken that a nervous fever has set in and that he is now so ill that he only devotes two hours daily to public affairs. The young son of Sultan Abdul Hamid is always with him.

A MARYLAND LYNCHING.

Speedy Vengeance on a Negro Who Assaulted a White Woman.

NONE OF THE LYNCHERS MASKED. -

The Meb Broke Through the Jall Doors with Sledges and Crowbars, and the Guilty Wretch was Hanged with a Rope Taken from an Electric Lamp.

FREDERICK, Md., Nov. 18.—James Goings, who assaulted Miss Lillie Jones, at the home of Hamilton Geisbert, near this ity. Saturday night, was taken from the jail by a mob of 300 men yesterday morning and hung to a tree in a field on the

Jefferson turnpike, one mile from the city
A report reached the city about midnight, that the woman had died from the outs and beating inflicted by the negro. and this infuriated the men, who had been gathering in the street; and discussing the outrage.

A mob was quickly g ten together, and unmasked, but armed with revolvers, the men marched to the jail. They, had previously broken into a machine shop in the neighborhood of the jail and procured sledges, crowbars and files. They made at once for the door on the west wing of the jall, and began to batter upon it. Fully twenty shots were fired from the windows above by Sheriff A. H. Zimmerman and his deputies, but the mob paid no attention to them, and went on with their work. The jail bell was rung to summon assistance, but none came. In twenty minutes the large door panels gave way under the heavy blows, and the mob burst into the corridor. They quickly overcame the slight resistance the officers on the inside were able to offer, and found the cell in which Goings, cowering and erying, was confined.

The lock was opened, the bolt swung back, and the trembling wretch seized and dragged out in his night clothes and stocking feet. In the meantime the friends of the lynchers on the outside had lowered an electric lamp near the jail and cut the rope from it, extinguishing the light.

Goings was led out amid the howls of the crowd, the rope placed around him, and he was hurried down the road to his place of doom. He protested his innocence as they drauged him along, and begged them not to kill him. He was promptly recognized by a number of men who knew him, and the mob did not besitate in its

Arriving at the tree, the negro was asked to confess, but this he would not do. Two officers of the Salvation Army asked to be allowed to pray with them, and their request was granted. The Lord's prayer was then repeated, and the negro and most of the crowd joined in. Going's feet and hands were then tied drawn around his neck A man seized the other end of it, climbed the tree and threw the cord over a limb. "Let him go," was shouted, and quick as a flash he was jerked from his feet and hung dangling in the air six feet from the ground. One shot was fired into his body, and in a few minutes he was dead. JOE TORRENCE OF CHICAGO.

Blacksmith, Soldier, Railroad King and Owner of a $10,000 Overcoat.

No matter whether whipping mobs single handed or buying $10,000 overcoats, building railroads or tooling tallyhos, discussing cold bottles or extracting Confederate bullets from his legs General Joe Torrence of Chicago is always picturesque and interesting. Whenever the Chicago newspapers are short of "copy," they fall back upon Torrence, and he never fails them. He is anything but commonplace. He is original. If he is followed closely, he is good for half a column every day, and just now his new $10,000 overcoat is the Torrence sensation of the hour. This wonderful garment is lined with about 80 pelts of Russian sable, one of the most expensive furs on the market, and is probably the costliest overcoat ever made. This fact, however, does not worry General Torrence. He is worth millions and is not losing sight of the fact that he cannot take them with him when he dies.

Torrence, despite his weakness for such finery as $10,000 overcoats, is a man of marked ability. He began life as a blacksmith, but his strong arms and active brain have made him many times a millionaire. He was born in the Connellsville district of Pennsylvania in 1843 and has made his way in life since he was 12 years old. He learned the blacksmith trade as a mere boy and went to the front as a member of the One Hundred and Fifth Ohio volunteer infantry when but 17. Even then he was of imposing height and was made a noncommissioned officer, although a stranger to every one in the regiment. At the battle of Perryville, Ky, he was so conspicuous that he quite unintentionally stopped four Confederate bullets, one of which he carried 30 years and finally cut from his leg with a lance while an astounded surgeon stood by and marveled at his pluck.

Torrence's wounds caused him to be honorably discharged from the service. but when Morgan raided Ohio Torrence was commander of one of the numeroubodies of troops which pursued and captured him. After the war he became are expert on rebuilding and handling iron works and located in Chicago in 1869. He has made a fortune in steel works, railroads and other vast enterprises One of his greatest successes is the Chi cago Elevated Railway Terminal company. During the anarchist riots he was in command of all the troops in Chicago. He is thoroughly at home in quelling disorder and has twice defeated a mob single handed, it is said.

OVER HALF A-MILLION.

That Sum to Be Expended For a New Presbyterian Publishing House.

The new building that will soon be erected in Philadelphia by the Presbyterian board of publication and Sabbath school work will be a colossal structure of granite and terra cotta, towering teastories in the air and occupying a site at the northwest corner of Walnut and Juniper streets, 225 feet long and 75 feet wide. The work will call for the expenditure of $525,000, and when it is completed the Presbyterian board will be the proud possessor of the most complete structure of the kind in the country, it is said. Besides furnishing accommodations for the board of publication and Sabbath school work and a vast auditorium for the use of the general assembly the building will have 150 strictly up to date offices for rent. The structure will be heated by steam and lighted by electraty. Hot and cold filtered water will be serred in every room, and it is said that in summer any tenant who desires a glass of ice water will be able to slake his thirst by simply turning a stopcock in the room be occupies. The corridors will be broad and high, with cement floors and marble warnscoting. The ventilating system will be the best obtainable, and numerous elevators will be run at frequent in-

Of the three entrances the most imposing will be on Walnut street, and from it a marble stairway will lead to the great auditorium on the ground floor. This auditorium will be one of the conspicuous features of the great structure. It will seat the entire general assembly of the church.

TWO BEAUTIFUL ONES. A Meeting of Experts and the Net Results

I ran across two beautiful story tellers in Young's last evening-Jim Hart, who travels for a Louisville liquid lightning establishment, and Harry Perkins, the representative of a New York wholesale dry goods house.
"I had a remarkable experience in my last trip from Cincinnati to Louisville, said Hart. "I walked into the smoking car at Cincinnati and was just about to load my meerschamm for action when I espied a young woman sitting in the seat directly across the aisle. 'I beg your par-con,' said I, 'but is this not the smoking 'Oh, yes,' she replied. 'Don't mind rie. Light up.' I thanked the fair damsel and 'llt up,' as advised. Imagine my surprise when she quickly leaned over, snatched the pipe from my mouth and threw it through the open window. I was speechless with rage, for that pipe was my solace and delight. Looking over, I saw that she had one of those unly little pugs sitting by her side. Without a word I yanked that beast from his seat and sent him flying through the same window. Then you could have cut the ellence with a knife. The lady looked daggers. I looked moving machines. Not a word said she. I said the same. When we arrived at Louisville, I left the car and the first sight that met my eyes was that frightful pug trotting along the station platform with my meerschaum firmly kins came to the rescue with his story.

"Now, fellows," said Perkins, "I cheerfully award the cake to Hart as the champion prevaricator. I never stretch the truth myself, and I will vouch for my story. I was walking along the river front in New York one day when my attention was attracted to two big longshoremen who were exchanging left handed compliments. Said Pat: Well, Tim, we've had enough gab; now let us foight. I'll so with ye over to the dock, and we'll foight this thing out. The man who is bate will cry "Enough!" and then we'll shake hands and have a dhrink togither. 'All roight,' said Tim. Away they went, and I went with them.

It did not take them long to strip for action, and I tell you, boye, it was the

"I can stand hunger, heat, cold, rags and the contempt of my fellowmen, but I mourn the loss of my mother's gift. One dollar will replace it. That is only 10 cents from ten different men. Can I take it that you will be incited to help me to the extent of a dime? Incited is not a familiar word, but something tells me that you will understand its connection in this sense."

The occupant stopped writing for a moment and nibbled at the penholder, and he had just taken fresh ink on the pen when the man in the doorway cleared his throat and said:

"I do not ask for money for my physical, but for my mental needs. May I confidentially bank on a donation of 10 cents from this office? While I am not at all pressed for time, an early reply on your

A. E. NICKINSON. - BUSINESS MANAGEE

MONDAY, NOV. 18, 1895.

The organization asx of $182,500 paid by the Erie Railroad Company, must have been a veritable godseno to the State Treasury, which has had to borrow over $2,000,000 in order to mest the current expenses of the State government.

As compared with the vote of 1892 the returns of this fall's election show a Democratic loss of 2,908 votes in this county and a Republican loss of only 169. Other counties in the State shows the same apathy and i difference on the part of Democrats A great Republican victory was made possible not by Republican interest or enthusiasm, but because thousands of so-called Democrats did not care enough about the re sult of the election to go to the polls

The published registration lists of New York city, which give the birthplace of every voter, have been gone over by the Volks-Zeitung to ascar tain the size of the German vote of the city. The analysis shows that our of a total registration of 279,335, 63. 364 were born in Germany and Austria. In other words, about onefourth of the city's vote is east by citizens of German birth.

If the conservative Republicars ir Congress have their way, the Republican majority will attempt no radical tariff legislation, but will content itself with amending the Wilson bill so as to increase the revenues and incidentally afford more protection to certain industries, which are clampring for a restoration of McKinley duties. It is probable, however, that as soon as a tariff bile is brought before the House, it wilbe so loaded down with amendments by members, each arxious to securlegislation in the interest of h s " deestrick's" Industries, that party discipline with avail nothing against "local issues" and the madness o McKinleyism will be repeated. It is scarcely possible that with its unw.eldy majority in the House, the Rapublican party can get through the session without the tariff issubeing forced to the front in most objectionable form.

FOR PRO RATA MILK FREIGHTS.

The Hearing Before the Inter-State Commerce Commission - Opening Speech of Counsel for the Parmers. BY UNITED PRESS.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.-The Inter-State Commerce Commissioners met nere, to-day, to investigate the complaints of milk producers against the railroads centreing in New York city. Hon. Joseph H. Choate, counsel for the Milk Producer's Protective Association, said the New Jersey coads were the principal offenders, and he proposed to show that those companies had combined to make a uniform freight on milk. Milk prolucers, he said, were seriously a!tected by the unjust competition arising from the unreasonable and arbitrary rates which permitted producers 300 miles away to enter the legitimate field of plaintiffs. Counsel contended that it was the duty of the Inter-State Commission to fix Freight Agent Chamberlin, of the fied that an agreement existed between the railroads for a uniform rate for milk no matter what the distance was.

one Thousand Men Out in New York and Fifteen Thousand May Strike in Sympathy.

BY UNITED PRESS. New York, Nov. 18. - One thousand members of the Housesmiths' and Bridge Makers' Union struck, today, for one dollar per day increase of wages, eight hours' work instead of nine per day and a recognition of he Udion. As a result work was stopped on a score of buildings. It is thought other building trades will strike in sympathy and fifteen thousand workers may be affected. The employing firms say the demands of union men are exorbitant.

THAT FOOT RACE AT GOSHEN The Wonderful Time Made by the Contestants in Saturgay's Match. The foot race of 75 yards between John Mack, of Middletown, and John Kane, of Goshen, at the Driving Park, Saturday afternoon, was easily won by Mr. Kane. Although the track was very teavy the distance was made in 71/2 seconds.

If the above time is correct these men must indeed be wonders and are wasting valuable time hippodroming about the country. The men claim to hall from Middletown and Gosher, but were totally unknown about these parts, until a few weeks ago, when they appeared here and interested several sports in their running abilities, with the result that Saturday's fake match was arranged.

The record time for this distance. 75 yarde, is: professional, H. M. Johnson 7 2 5 seconds; amateur, L H. Carey 735 seconds.

Mr. Kace, therefore, enjoys the distinction of having beaten the best amateur time and having covered the distance within a very small fraction of a second of the best profeesional performance. And this on a "heavy track." We guess "nit."

Beath of Father McCorry's Wother-Water Works' Pump Breaks Down. From Our Regular Correspondent.

-The Rev. P. E McCorry, rector of St. John's Church, is in New York City, to-day, attending the funeral of his mother, whose death occurred on Saturday morning, at 2 o'clock.

-The pump, furnished by the Newark firm, which has been in operation for sev ral weeks at the water works, has been idle for the past thirty s x hours. At midnight, Saturday night, it was shut down because of the breaking of a bar. A man is expected to arrive from Newark, to-day, to repair the break, when it will again be set in motion.

-Biram Flagler was discharged from custody, this morning. No one appeared against him at the hearing.

FOOTBALL MATCH AT COSHEN.

The Goshens Fall to Score Against the Cornwall Military Academy Team Incidents of the Game-rwo Gosben Pleyers Hurt

From Our Goshen Correspondent.

On Saturday afternoon, for the second time this season, the Goshen Social and Athletic Association's football team met defeat at the hands of the New York Military Academy's eleven of Cornwall, by a score of 10 to 0.

Although the Goshen team failed to score, they held their opponents down well, particularly in the first half of the game. In the second half they were somewhat winded owing to lack of training, and it was an easier matter for Cornwall to go through them. One particularly noticeable feature of the game was the profuse hirsute adornment of the athletes, To him, who has a glass eve for the beautiful, this is worthy of rothing but condemation. It is indispensable, however, to the football player, and it is not going into the realms of romance to associate, in our minds, the football player and the chryanthemum hair, as we asociate corn beef and cabbage or pork with beans. While practicing before the game Mr. E O. Price, one of Gushen's strongest players, had the misfortune to twist hie ankle, obliging him to retire from the game. A young mam, named Fish, hailing from Libwas substitued in his stead. Mr. Figh grew his hair in the reguletion football style, and put up a fairly good game. In the latter half he hit the murky sod, and he hit pretty hard, with the whole team on top of him. O ving to the rough usage received in this encounter, he too was chliged to withdraw. It was fully demonstrated in this game that the Goshen team is, in the mair, composed of good material, although weak in one or two spots. These places should be patched up, when, with the requisite practice, wa h luid have a first-class eleven. A good sized crowd was in attendance, and the game was successful rom a financial standpoint.

MY LADY'S HAT.

Through many a season's cloud and sun And wind and rain I've watched the sands of fashion run And leved you, Jane, And never has my firm belief In your fair fancies caused me grief.

My deep devotion has been sound When you've elected To trail your skirts upon the ground, And quite protected My mind has been from haggard doubt When you've essayed to do without.

In strange and devious paths where you Have sought for beauty I've followed, and a rosy view Has been sweet duty-Determined ever to admire The fashion of my Jane's attire.

But now, ah, now, that reseate hue Too surely dies.
A hostile and "electric blue" Corrupts my eyes, And all around, infecting me,

AN ADVENTURE.

Ten years ago found me not with the anug business I now possess, but employed as a commercial traveler in the grocery line. My duties frequently took me to Birmingham, and, if I am to tell my story truthfully, I must say I was at that period of my history, to put it mildly, no better than I ought to have been. The life of a commercial is one fraught with very great temptation, and I was not always strong enough to keep my feet out of the midst of the briers which then beset my path, with which statement my readers will readily agree when they read the strange incident I am now going to relate.

It was 6 o'clock on an autumn evening. The streets of Birmingham were swept with rain. I had had a tolerably successful day, and there reposed in my pockets the sum of £20, which I had collected from my firm's customers. Having nothing particular to do, and the torrents of rain absolutely prohibiting all open air enjoyment, I went to the hotel I was staying at, and although I had already drunk during the afternoon more than I ought and much more than I needed I called for a further supply of brandy, and while sipping it was joined by a stranger, who seemed eager to enter into conversation with me.

Nothing backward, and with tengue fairly set a-wagging, I talked, too, and I believe that before many moments he had ascertained that I had £20 belonging to my employer in my possession.

The brandy finished, nothing would satisfy my new found friend but that he should take me to the theater, where the well known play of "Drink" was being performed. I remember well how, half tipsy as I was, I shuddered at the realistic portraiture by one of the artists of a victim to delirium tremens. I remember how the horrors of drink vere delineated and was sanc enough to remark to my companion :

"Bosh! They are overdrawing it!"
"Certainly," he replied, "they are overdrawing it. But it's only a play. There are drinking bars here; they are a reality. Come, let's go and get something."

So we went and "got something," and, to cut a long story short, when I left the theater, leaning on the arm of my friend, I was helplessly intoxicated. The next thing I knew was this: The rainclouds had rolled away, and fitful gleams of moonlight revealed to me the fact that I was in a strange room, lying on a strange bed. Two o'clock chimed out from a neighboring steeple. Sobered with fright, I raised myself, and then, quick as a lightning flash, came the thought-my money! My clothes were thrown across the bottom of the bed. I searched the trousers pocket. The gold

Then I heard voices in soft conversation coming up from below. Noiselessly I opened the bedreom door and listened. "Sure he's all serone?" queried one voice, to which another responded, "He won't wake till 6, at the carliest."

"Very good," said the first voice. 'Mind, if he wakes while you're doing it"— The sentence was punctuated by the numistakable click of a pistol, and I shivered—not from cold.

"And at 6 or 7, or whenever he does wake," continued the voice, "tell him you picked him up drunk in the street and carried him in here out of compassion for safety, and you will easily conviuce him that he was robbed out of doors. But, mind, I have done my part in plying him with drink and in decoying him here. See you do yours in gracefully relieving the poor fool of his £20!" Here a step on the stairs warned mo to close the door, and I got back to hed. Hearing the knob of the door turn, I began to breathe heavily after the fashion of a drinken man, and the next instant, shading the caudie with his hand, there appeared the term of a strange man, who was seen peering fixedly into my

Satisfied apparently with his examination, my visitor searched my peckets, pounced upon the gold, of course, and quickly transferred it from its erstwhile resting place to-where do you guess? He went to a birdeage, which now for the first time I observed hanging up, drew out its sliding door, quietly emptied my gold into it, replaced the slide and undressed and lay down beside me. He was soon askep, and hope sprang up within me, but, alas, of all the light sleepers he was the lightest I ever knew! Whenever I moved, he appeared to be on the alert. It was impossible to crawlout of bed without his being conscious of the fact. Besides under his pillow I knew was the pistol, and, in despair, I had reluctantly to rest on as calm and unconcerned as I possibly could. All wakeful I passed that horrible

THOROUGH INVESTIGATION REQUESTED.

A BOLD ASSERTION.

Ever since Prof. Koch startled the world by promising to cure consumption with the Koch lymph and his complete failure to do so, the people have been looking for some discovery which would prove an absolute, certain cure for that dread disease. Over a quarter of a century ago Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, put in a claim for a medicine, which he had discovered and used, in his extensive practice, that and used, in his extensive practice, that would cure ninety-eight per cent. of all cases of consumption when taken in all its early stages. Time has proved that his assertion was based on facts gained from experience. His "Golden Medical Discovery" has cured many thousand people in all parts of the world, and Dr. Pierce invites all interested to send to him for a free book which gives the names, addresses and photographs of many prominent people who have willingly testified to the marvelous curative properties of his "Golden Medical Discovery." He has also written a Book of 1000 pages, profusely illustrated, which treats of Throat, Bronchial and Lung diseases, also Asthma and Catarrh. stamps, to pay postage and wrapping only. Consumption, as most everybody knows, is first manifested by feeble vitality, loss of strength, emaciation; then local symptoms soon develop, as cough, difficult breathing, or bleeding from lungs, when investigation proves that tubercular deposits have formed in the lungs. It is earnestly advised that the "Discovery" be taken early and the latter stages of the disease can thereby be easily avoided.

To build up solid flesh and strength after the grip, pneumonia, ("lung fever"), exhausting fevers, and other prostrating diseases, it has no equal. It does not make fat like cod liver oil and its nasty compounds, but, solid, wholesome flesh.

night, and the slow hours dragged on interminably. But at length a project presented itself to my now sharpened senses, which project I put into execution when 6 o'clock struck.

"Failure," said I to myself, "means simply death. Success means a saved reputation with my employers and a vow of strictest sobriety. 1

Everything being perfectly quiet, I simulated a gradual waking up, and my first yawn opened the eyes of my bedfellow. The second had the effect of raising him from his recambent position in the bed, and when I slowly and painfully awoke he was bending over me, ali solicituda.

Daylight was now stealing into the

"My poor fellow," exclaimed the assiduous one, "how do you feel now? You will wonder, no doubt, at being in my bed, but the fact is you were ill last night, were you not?"

"Ill?" I said. "Ill?" And I put my hand mechanically to my head. "Well, I think I must have been. My head does ache so!"

He smiled and replied, "Well, my dear fellow, not to put too fine a point upon it I found you late last night in the gutter, just a little bit the worse for liquor, and two scmewhat disreputable looking men who were with you asked me if I could manage to look after you for the night."

I expressed my profound thanks to my good friend for his unselfish kindness, but he modestly waved them aside, saying deprecatingly: "Dary, sir, daty! I cannot neglect a genuine case of human suffering or danger without some attempt, however slight, at succor.

I thanked bim again. "I am ill," I said. "I had too much brandy yesterday. I must have a hair of the dog that bit me. I must have a nip now. It is the only thing which will put me right. If you have any brandy in the house, for beaven's sake, sir, bring me a drop!" He hesitated a moment, then rejoined: "Certainly. Lie there and I'll be back with it in a mement." and disappeared. Much quicker than I can relate it, I prung up, went to the birdcage, drew the sliding may, transferred all the contents into my handkerchief and thence into my cont pocket, finally replacing the tray. Not a moment too seen was I back between the sheets, for in an instant my good Samaritan arrived with the brandy. I drank and professed to be much better. I dressed; so did be. World I have breakfast? No! I most reluctantly asked to be excused, being in hoste to ceach the first train a possibly could back to town, and I pointed our to my noble, hear that either breakfast or that train must of necessity be given up. Would be forgive me if I felt compelled to choose the train? I searched in my tronsers pecket for my money, gave a start of surprise, shricked out: "They have relibed me. those villains. Robbed me last night!" And I simulated as ably as I could a most woeful expression of grief and despair. My good friend sympathized deeply with me. He invoked maledictions on the head of any one who could be base enough to rob an unfortunate stranger. and with a generosity well nigh unparalleled he pressed upon me to accept, seeing I was penniless, as a temporary loan if I diked, the sum of 10 shillings. "Do take it." he arged. "It is, you know, more blessed to give than to recoive. I am not rich myself, but a few shiftings in the cause of philanthropy I shoul not, care at miss.

So, with renewed assurance of indebtedness, I wished my estimable ben efactor adieu; told him I should never forget bim as long as I lived (here 1 really was speaking the truth) and departed. What the locality was I knew not, but I wandered-nay, I rushed on and on-until I saw a sleepy looking jehu, whom I bade drive me with all possible speed to the station. The train was just starting, and I jumped into an empty compartment. Hastily I untied the bag and scanned the contents. Lo and behold! I found that I had swept the birdcage clean, for when I counted the money there were £42 in gold and two £5 Bank of England notes, making the very respectable total of £52. Now I am happily and pracefully settled in life, and when round the fireside at night I am called on for a story, noticing delights me better than to tell my tale of how the trappers were trapped —Londen Tit-Bits.

Rebecca Wilkinson, of Brownsvalley. Ind., says: "Theve been in a distressed condition for three years from nervousness, weakness of the stomach, dyspepsia and indigestion until my health was gone. I had been doctoring constantly with aorellef. I bought one bottle of South American Nervine, which did me more good than any $50 worth of doctoring I ever did in my life. I would advise every weakly person to use this valuable and lovely medcine: a few bottles of it have cured me completely. I consider it the grandest medicine in the world." ranted the most wonderful stomach and nerve curs ever known. Sold by J. E. Mills, Middletown, N Y.

A SLIGHT ACCIDENT.

If Tom Hadn't Seen It, It Woull Have Been All Right. "I understand that Tom doesn't like

conr cooking," observed the girl who had just run in for a moment, "I'd just like to know how you ever found that out?" retorted the girl who looked as if the had just been shedding

"Oh, well, pechaps Lina was mistaken, but she said that she went down town with him today just after he left here and aw him go right into a restaurant. We both knew that you had invited him up to luncheon of your own cooking, so we inferred"—

"Inferred? Then you don't really know anything that Lappened?"

"Of course not. By the way, I think I hall run in to see Tom's sister while I am out today. I don't just owe her a call, but -well, I just know there is a good story thout that luncheon, and she will tease it out of him somehow if she once gets a hint

"You are just as mean as you can be, Minnie Marshmallow. Of course I will tell you myself rather than lot that horrid thing find it out. "That was what I thought," calmly replied the girl who had just run in for a moment, as she removed her hat and "Well-now, you mustn't tell Lina a word of this—Tom was very anxions to taste some of the dishes I had learned to prepare at the cooking school, so I invited bim up to a tete-a-tete luncheon today. I knew mamma was going to grandma's anyhow, so he'd know she didn't cook it, and I invited him to come when pa and the boys were away, so they couldn't tell him about the cake, in which I put a pound of baking powder and three tea-spoonful- of powdered sugar-merely an accident, you know.

"Of course. What did you cook for uncheon?"

"Well. I-the fact is, that mamma's bread was so good that I decided I'd better use that. Then Grace sent me over some lovely salad She's going to teach me how to make it, anyway, so that it didn't really matter. Then there was some lovely elly

"I know, but what did you cook your self:"

"Oh I cooked a beefsteak-Tom says that with good bread, butter and beefsteak iny man can get along."

"So you cooked it all yourself?" "Well, mamma was in the kitchen at the time, and I just get her to help me. You see. Tom came early and I was a little bit pervous. As soon as it was done I put her right out of the back door on her way to grandom's. And oh, dear me, what do you think happened."

"I am not thinking just now-I am merely listening." • "Well just as I went to dish up the beefsteak—I—I let it fall right on the

"Was that all? Why didn't you just pick it up and put it on the plate again? It tidn't really "-"That'- just what I did. But be had just stolen into the kitchen to see what I was doing and he-he saw me do it!" And it was fully five minutes before the girl who had just run in for a moment could think of anything to say .- Chicago

The Long Drouth-4 Good Season for Grain-A Burgiary Big Potato Crop -Little Interest in the Election-Exmensive Insurance-The Low Price of Horses-Good Roads - Death of Mrs. Hannah Avery.

Correspondence Angus and MERCURY. -I can hardly say that the drouth is really broken in this locality. There has been rain enough to make plowing easy and help water mills a little, but springs and wells that Tailed are dry yet. There is something strange about how some wells fail at one time and not at others. Some wells that were dry last year nave plenty of water this year and ten thousand bushels of grain this past fall. They pronounce it the best year for grain they have ever seen in their nine years' experience with a threshing machine. The grain Es good weight and was a good crop where the grasshoppers let it alone.

-John Whitmore recently fell from the roof of a new building he was working on at Railly Bros. new steam mill and was hadly brulsed. besides having several bones broken.

-Wm. Prosser's house was burglarized a few nights ago while he was at church. An entrance was effected by prying up one of the windows with force enough to break the fastenings. A suit of men's clothe, a revolver, a ladies' ring and a small amount of change was taken. It is thought that the work was that -of a vagrant who has wanted to become a town charge for some time sand as Mr. Prosser is poormaster and refused to admit him as a town charge, it is thought this was done æs much for revenge as for gain. A subsequent examination of the barn showed that some one haloccoupled a hole in the haymow, and The supposition is that this fellow was on the watch for some time until Mr. Prosset left home.

-I recently visited the Brooklyn. X. Y, navy yard and spent a very profitable half day there. I have as a souvenir of this visit a piece of live eak from a plank taken out of the Kearsage before she started on her Isst and ill-fated trip. The place is Harge enough to make a cane and will be capped with a piece of steel taken from some steel used in the new war zhip Maiue.

-The potato crop through this section was truly immense. Some farmers sold their surplus at 25 cents a bushel, delivered at Cochecton, and others are holding them for better prices next spring. I think there mever was such a crop through this -Election passed off quietly hare. Many Democrats seem to have lost interest in politics and remained at home. Wayne County gave a small Republican majority mainly on that account, and not on the merits of the candidates. If the Democracy of Wayne County did its duty, they would invariably hold the fort.

-The proprietor of the Cochecton creamery will have to put in a leading pipe to the river to carry off the waste matter when making cheere, as the people of the town object to having it emptied in the gutter iq the immediate vicinity.

-The Damascus Union Academy is usid to have a very_prosperous and promising school started to it again. This is an old school, and once had a wide reputation.

-I have heard farmers express great dissatisfaction with the Wayne County Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurzece Company since its last annual assessment was made known. Many claim that while insured in a stock company their insurance dust less thin in the Farmers' Mutual; and if I have concluded rightly many will drop out as soon as their t me ex

-It is truly wonderful the change that has come upon the price of Tierses. The borse is worth just as much to-day for the work at which he is used; but as every one has a surplus of these animals there is no sicmand for them; and until there is some sort of opening there will con-Unus a dull market. I have in mind mow a neighbor who offers a pair of mine-year-old work horses for $110, and yet he finds no purchaser. He has a pair of three-year-old colts that are fit to do his farm work another year, and that is why he wishes to

-The past season has been an unusully good one for roads. There were but few showers, and but one or Awo of them were heavy enough to wash the roads to any extent, and as a result they are in fine condition for all kinds of wheeling. Teamsters who have been hauling maple lumber were enabled to take immense loads with ease. -Years ago when the farmer went into the woods to cut his year's sup-Big of firewood, he invariably pitched anto the nicest and smoothest tree

he could see, and even then would cut the body of the tree as far as the limbs only, and the rest was left to ECCAL HAPPENINGS IN EASTERN rot. Now when the farmer goes into his "patch of brush" to cut his supply of fuel for the winter or the year he cuts everything clean and leaves the brush and timbs in heaps. Thus he accomplishes two objects. He gets his wood and clears off a piece of land every year as an addition to his farm. Many cut the poles with horse power at the rate of 20 or 25 cords a

Her daughter, Mrs. Mary Mitchall, and her daughter Sadie, of Americus, Kansas, came here to pay their last respects to their deceased mother and grand mother. Mrs. Mitchell, with two sons and one daughter removed from her place to Kansas about five years ago, where the sons are now engaged in mercantile pursuits. The daughter, with whom Mrs. Avery resided when she died, is Mrs. F. P. Woodward, whose husband is a newspaper editor, and was at one time proprietor of the Hawley

THE PAVING JOBS-

Nine Cars of Brick Received Since saturday Night-Concreting Wickham

Nine carloads of brick were received between Saturday night and this morning, by Messrs. Orr Bros. This, it is thought, will be sufficient to complete the pavement on the nort h side of the railroad tracks and part of the couth side. The brick for the space between the tracks is not yet in sight. These bricks will be bevelled to fit the track the same as those used on North strest.

Mr. John Orr is at Catakill, to-day, trying to impress the Catskill Brick Company with the importance of hurrying up brick shipments and no lenger imposing upon the good na-

Who Will Be Resident Superintendent? Superintendents of the Poor Merritt and Hasbrouck both want to be appointed resident superintendent at Orange Farm and a het fight is on in the Board of Supervisors, which will make the appointment. Supervisor Loughran, of Montgomery, is looking after the interests of Mr. Hasbrouck, who seems to have the inside track, for Mr. Merritt's town. Deerpark, is represented by a Democrat, Mr. Naarpase, whose voice is not very potent in the distribution of Republican patronage.

A Mre Bug Captured,

Honesdale's fire bug has at last been detected and arrested. He is David Pullis, a young man who has been confined in an insano asylum, and is believed now to be of unsound mind. He was detected, Saturday morning about 2 o'clock, to the act of setting fire to a livery stable, and was arrested and placed in jail.

IS IT A SUSTAINER?

> How much manual labor do you think you do in a day? 🛣 A post-man averages about 353 foottons. An ordinary laborer 350 tons. A very hard day's work would be 400 tons. A clerk or bookkeeper may fall as low as from 1ς to 20 tons. 🔗 In Weston's recent walk to Albany, 150 miles, in 60 hours, we calculate his work was no less than 1005 foottons, and his food consisted entirely of
